The Bon Ton

RUSSIAN OFFENSIVE SHOWS NO SIGNS OF LETTING UP

The map shows the location and progress of the Russian offensive. The arrows A, B, and C indicate the three main offensives. In the space between B and C the Russians have forced a considerable retirement along a line from Tarnopol south to Buczacz. The arrow A marks the renewed offensive against Kovel. The arrow B shows the drive of General Sakharoff, who aims at the Galicia stronghold of Lemberg from Brody. Arrow C shows General Lechitsky's advance toward Halicz, the key to Lemberg, from Stanislaw. The arrow D shows the position of General von Bohmer's army falling back before the Russians.

PRESIDENT VETOES

whose name was mentioned was while in service very active in legislative affairs, very close to congressmen framing army bills and until his retirement was reckoned with as a power in legislation affecting the army.

The president's veto of the bill is a development of years of contest between the army and Mr. Hay. The downfall of the continental army scheme and substitution of the national guard against the recommendation of army officers is attributed to him. Only the force of President Wilson's interference put the regular army increase in the new bill through the House in the face of Hay's opposition. Recently President Wilson appointed Hay to a judgeship on the court of claims and he is now serving his last term in Congress.

Representative Hay announced that he would seek to re-pass the bill in the House under a special rule next Tuesday.

"The articles of war will not be permitted to get through in this bill again," he declared.

The danger of complications and delay lies in the fact that Mr. Chamberlain of the Senate military committee said that if the House passed the bill without revision of the articles of war the Senate probably would re-insert them as they were passed by the Senate. The president and the war department were satisfied with that provision.

"The veto," said Mr. Chamberlain, "reopens the whole bill and there may be some senators who will want to renew their fight for amendments which were stricken out in conferences."

FRENCH REFUSED.

BERLIN, Aug. 18. — Attacks by the French Thursday night in the Verdun region east of the Meuse were repulsed all along the line except Fleury, where fighting is still in progress, the war office announced Friday.

POLITICIANS DAY

horticultural, floral and machinery hall exhibits. Experts will be in charge of all these departments and the premium offerings exceed by several thousand dollars the offerings of previous fairs.

The expert ability and wide experience of the men who are to be in charge of the various departments speak in themselves for the high standard of excellence that is to be maintained.

Fast Racing.

The racing events will also constitute one of the leading features of the fair. There will be the usual saddle events with running races each day as a special feature for liberal purses. Some of the most noted race horses in the country will be seen in action and new speed records are promised. There will also be pony, mule, and motorcycle races.

Lack of space forbids an enumeration of the many special attractions that will be seen at the fair this year. It suffices to say, however, that they will be of the very highest class, comprehensive, interesting and educational. A number of them under the direct management of the fair will be free. Special attention has been given to provide attractions of peculiar interest to women and children, and there will be a great array of midway features.

On All Trains.

Excursions for the big meet will be run on all branches of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad reaching Clarksburg and there will be extra and ample trolley car service direct to the grounds.

Extensive preparations have been made for the fair by Sherman C. Denham, president, and his large and able corps of assistants and all indications point to a record-breaking attendance. All attendance records were smashed at the magnificent meeting held a year ago but the interest that is being taken in this year's meeting, owing to the special features and exceedingly liberal cash offerings, assures a still greater record.

refuses to press the men for arbitration it will be difficult for the railroad executives to continue opposition to his plan.

After the meeting of the brotherhoods had been in session for an hour one of the leaders came out and said sentiment for the president's proposal was by no means unanimous but no organized opposition to the plan had appeared. Most of them thought the proposition good in the main but a number found objections to it.

"There are about 500 men in there clamoring for a chance to speak," said the leader who came out, "and if they are heard so many of them doubtless will be there no telling when we will get to a vote."

Soon after 12 o'clock a vote on the president's proposition was begun in the men's meeting. It was expected that more than an hour would be required to take the vote and count it.

How to Beautify a Summer Soiled Face

It's really a simple matter to renovate a face soiled by sun, wind or dirt. Ordinary mercurial wax, used like cold cream, will transform the worst old complexion into one of snowy whiteness and velvety softness. It literally peels off the outer shell of surface skin, so gently, gradually, there's no discomfort. The worn-out skin comes off not in patches, but evenly, in tiny particles, leaving no evidence of the treatment. The younger, healthier under-skin forming the new complexion, is one of captivating loveliness. One ounce of mercurial wax, to be had at any drugstore, is enough to remove any tanned, reddened, pimply, freckled or blotchy skin. Apply before retiring, washing it off morning.

Many skins wrinkle easily with every wind that blows, with heat, worry, etc. An excellent wrinkle remover, because it tightens the skin and strengthens relaxed muscles, is a wash lotion made as follows: Powdered waxolite, 1 oz. dissolved in witch hazel, 8 pt. This gives immediate results.

THEATER

Tax is Not Paid Uncle Sam and Alexander Young Man is Jailed.

C. E. Hopkins, a young man of Alexander, this state, not more than 20 years of age, was held for the federal grand jury at a hearing Friday morning in this city before S. R. Harrison, Jr., United States court commissioner, under a charge of having operated a motion picture theater at Alexander without having paid the federal license tax. He entered a plea of guilty and in default of bond he was remanded to the Harrison county jail, whither he was taken Thursday evening by a deputy marshal.

The law provides a maximum penalty of six months in jail and a fine of $500 and costs, but no minimum. Hopkins is charged with having operated the theater only about four weeks along in January and February of this year and failing to pay a tax of $12.50 for that period. He purchased the theater, operated it a month and then sold it. He declares he did not know a license tax was required. Federal officers said they gave him several chances of paying the fee but it was not forthcoming.

BAYLIS INDICTED.

NEW YORK, August 18. — The Rev. Charles T. Baylis, head of the Allies hospital relief commission, was indicted by the grand jury Friday, charged with grand larceny. The indictment grows out of an investigation into the disposition of a fund of about $7,000 collected by Dr. Baylis from wealthy persons, which, it is alleged, was not used for the purpose intended.

BRITISH GAIN.

LONDON, Aug. 18. — German artillery became more active Thursday night along the Somme front. A small British gain is reported in the official announcement of Friday.
